

MEXICO CITY IS STIRRED BY WILD RIOTS IN NIGHT

SEVERAL PEOPLE KILLED WHEN POLICE WERE OVERPOWERED BY MOB.

ZAPATA IS IN POSSESSION

Washington Authorities Believe He Will Be Able to Maintain Order.

(Associated Press)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—Mexico City reports tell of rioting there last night in which several were killed, but details of the trouble are delayed because of wire trouble. It is believed, however, that the riots were the result of the Constitutionalists troops to meet General Villa's army, thus leaving the city unprotected except by the police, from whom, the advices say, the mob took weapons, rendering the officers helpless.

Zapata in Possession.

General Blanco left the city yesterday and Zapata's forces at once assumed possession. The wires leading from the city were cut in most directions, but the officials here are in touch with the situation and it is believed that Zapata will maintain order.

Conflicting Reports.

The conflicting reports caused doubt and some uneasiness as to the condition in Mexico. An official message yesterday said General Blanco had abandoned the capital and that Zapata's troops were in possession. A later message said that Blanco was still somewhere in the capital but that his troops had left and that Zapata troops were still somewhere outside the city.

Communication Cut Off.

The interruption of the wires south of Juarez has cut off communication with consular agent Vanoua at Aguas Calientes and with George Carothers, who is with Villa's troops.

ROSENTHAL MURDER RECALLED

(Associated Press)

New York, Nov. 25.—The assassination of Herman Rosenthal was recalled by the shooting to death last night of Barnett Baff, a rich poultry dealer, after a young man had called him from his place of business. The officials think the work was that of hired gunmen. Baff has a number of business enemies and has been instrumental in prosecuting members of the "poultry trust" in New York. There is no clue to his assailant.

Mt. Carroll Editor Thinks Whiteside Folk Revengeful

Cal Freezer, veteran editor of the Mt. Carroll Democrat, is of the opinion that the people of Whiteside county are blood thirsty. This is what he has to say on the Byers' case:

"The Whiteside county papers do not seem pleased over the verdict in the Byers' murder case, rendered at Morrison last week. The Sentinel reviews the evidence and the decision and asserts that the verdict was unjust and says that the people are thoroughly disgusted, as the verdict places a premium on crime in Whiteside county. We are commencing to think that the Byers sisters' attorneys were right when they thought

TRAMP BURNED TO DEATH IN BIG FIRE

BONES AND ASHES ALL THAT IS

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 25.—Coroner Martin H. McAllister of Winnebago county has returned from the Edward Salmon farm, three miles southeast of Beloit, bringing in a rubber blanket the ashes of what is supposed to have been a man who burned to death in the fire which destroyed the large barn.

The body is too badly burned to be identified offhand as of a human being; in fact nothing remains but half a bushel of ashes and charred bones. Helpers pitching the smoldering hay after the flames had been subdued lifted on their pitchforks a gruesome mass to which seemed to be attached pieces of cloth which burst into flames and were destroyed when exposed to the air. That the body was that of a tramp burned to death in the hay now appears almost certain and it is believed that he set fire to the barn, probably while smoking.

HAVE CLASSY ILLUSTRATION

We want to call our readers' attention to the illustration that is used in connection with the OBynon-Richards Co. advertisement on page five. This is a reproduction from a famous masterpiece and appeals to us as being particularly appropriate at this time. We're glad to see that some manufacturers and merchants are trying to raise the standard of their lines of business, as is so well exemplified in this instance.

Mrs. Theresa Tibbitts will leave next week for Florida.

MURDERED MAN'S COMPANION NOW BEING LOOKED FOR

POLE WHO WAS WITH GLENDENNING AT NELSON CAN NOT BE FOUND.

JURY CONCLUDES ITS INQUEST

Finds That Indiana Man Died As Result of Assault On N. W. Train.

(Special to the Telegraph.)

Pekin, Ill., Nov. 25.—The coroner's jury, which met last Friday to inquire into the death of Frederick D. Glendenning, found murdered in a freight car, concluded its inquest last evening at the Kuecks morgue and returned a verdict that Glendenning came to his death as the result of an assault by an unknown person in which his skull was fractured, the assault taking place on a freight train of the Northwestern railroad between Nelson, Ill., and South Pekin, Ill., on the night of Nov. 18-19, and the jury recommended that the sheriff of Tazewell county be requested to use all diligence in apprehending the perpetrator of the assault.

Seen at Nelson.

Only one additional witness was heard. James G. Draper, a conductor on the Northwestern, but who was acting as rear brakeman the night of the tragedy, came in from South Pekin last evening and identified the man who asked a switchman named Eddie Ortigiesen at Nelson, which train went to Peoria.

Mr. Draper was standing in a group of switchmen when the question was asked and saw Glendenning disappear over a bank along the track to inform a companion. Later (Continued on Page 5, Column 2)

FRANKLIN GROVE MAN PAINFULLY HURT AT MILTON CRAWFORD FARM.

Prof. Baldwin Is Superintendent Of Fulton Schools

Dixon Educator Accepts Position
As Head of Excellent
School System

The board of education of Fulton, Ill., has unanimously extended to Superintendent H. V. Baldwin of Dixon the superintendency of their grades and high school. Though it had been Mr. Baldwin's intention to remain at outside work this year he has decided to accept the offer, which is a very good one.

Fulton has a new $40,000 high school building, equipped in the most up-to-date shape with commodious play grounds. The schools are in excellent condition, brought to this grade of efficiency by Superintendent H. B. Price, lately elected to the county superintendency of Whiteside county.

Superintendent H. V. Baldwin was for him an enviable reputation as a school man. His many friends in Dixon, and his splendid work of bringing those institutions up to the high standard they now maintain has won for him an enviable reputation as a school man. His many friends in Dixon congratulate the people of Fulton in securing such a man. Prof. Baldwin will not move his residence from Dixon for the present, at least. Mrs. Baldwin will remain in Dixon and Mr. Baldwin will spend his week-ends here.

ELKS' FAIR WILL SURELY DRAW
ENOIGMOUS CROWD THIS EVENING.

Miss Marcella Kent has been secured by the Elks' fair committee to give a fancy dancing exhibition at their fair Friday evening. Miss Kent is a clever exponent of the art of terpsichore and her dances have always pleased the numerous audiences before which she has appeared. This will be one of the most popular features of the fair.

Tonight will be the last for the sale of poultry at the fair and only a limited amount remains to be sold. Nearly 100 fowls were sold at the fair last evening. Candy and cigars will be sold until the close of the week and the elegant diamond ring will be given away Saturday night.

The biggest crowd of the week was in attendance at the fair last night and the dance floor was well filled throughout the evening. The Rice trio, composed of Miss Myrtle and Messrs Elmer and Curtis Rice, favored the crowd with a most pleasing vocal selection and they were applauded until they rendered two encores in their usual pleasing manner.

ASKS FOR PRAYERS FOR PEACE

It also asks that special services be held Sunday after the principal mass until the warring nations make an agreement for arbitration for peace.

United Republicans Able To Elect Next Speaker

Republican hope of electing the speaker of the next house of representatives at Springfield now depends on the chance of getting all the 78 republicans into a binding speakership caucus.

The complete and official returns show the republicans have elected 78 members, one more than the necessary constitutional majority of 77. Should there be last minute changes Saturday by final ruling of the board of election commissioners in the returns from one precinct of the second ward Wm. Ostrom, republican, may be declared the winner over John P. Walsh, democrat, and the republican total at Springfield will go to 79. On the present showing of the figures the republicans have 78, the democrats 71, the progressives 2 and the socialists 2.

Even in Senate.

On the basis that the state canvassing board will issue election certificates to P. G. Baldwin in the Eleventh district and to Henry W. Autlin in the twenty-third district, the senate will be composed of 25 republicans, 25 democrats and one progressive, George W. Harris, a holdover.

BREAK ALL RECORDS IN FRIDAYS RUN

UNITED STATES WILL BE CROSS-ED IN RELAYS FRIDAY,
NOVEMBER 27

On Friday, Rev. A. B. Whitcombe, Lee county consul of the Lincoln Highway association, and Joe Miller will drive from her to Sterling in the Lincoln Highway association's great 3,400 mile tour, to be run on that day. The details of the run are outlined in the following dispatch from Detroit:

The 3,400 mile tour to be run on Friday, the 27th of this month, when every mile of the Lincoln Highway be- tween New York and San Francisco will be traversed by an official Lin- coln Highway car, is the answer to the hundreds of questions which have been received by the national head- quarters of the Lincoln Highway asso- ciation here as to the condition of the way and its probable use in 1915 by the majority of transcontinental tour- ists.

The association has been flooded with inquiries as to the exact condi- tion of the roadbed the progress of the work in the west and the possibi- lity of the route being open by spring. "We want to impress on the nation," said A. R. Pardington, vice president of the Lincoln Highway association, "that the route is now open and that every foot of it can be covered in one day—any day, that is, that no espe- cially favorable weather must be wait- ed for, but that on any given day any part of the route can be traversed. We have been swamped with letters on the subject; this run of 3,400 miles in one day is the answer to all of them."

OUR FOREIGN TRADE

While European nations are en- gaged in blowing each other into distres- sing remains the United States is gathering in the commerce of the world.

She is grabbing up English busi- ness in China, and her drum- mers are present- ing obituary no- tices of German competitors to South America with a polite request for the trade of the deceased in the same enve- lope.

Several millions of Europeans are killing each other and as they fight, a thousand American newspapers are exclaiming, "Hurrah, boys, here's a dead man. Let's take his trade."

This sounds as unpleasant to sane, fastidious Americans as the call of the vulture to his mate, as he spies a dead horse. But it must sound far more villainous and inflammatory to the nations who are doing the fight- ing and losing the above mentioned trade.

Dramatic Notes

FAMILY THEATRE
An Essanay three reel feature called "Ambushed," featuring Frances Bushman, will be presented at the Family tonight. Also a comedy en- titled "Love and Hash."

A special Thanksgiving matinee will be given tomorrow, for which occasion a vaudeville of unusual ex- cellence has been arranged, which will be in evidence for the four days closing Sunday night. The Elk Trio, composed of two gentlemen and a lady, will be seen here for the first time during this engagement and that they will be welcome is a fore- gone conclusion. The Elk Trio have established an enviable reputation in the vaudeville realm as harmony sing- ers, in which line they are second to none, and for artistic delivery are certainly not inferior to any. Their selection of numbers is all that could be desired and will appeal to the most fastidious.

As an extra attraction on this pro- gram will be seen the unique novelty of Evans & Sister, a recent importa- tion from Europe for the great Pan- tages Circuit of Vaudeville theatres with which the Family theatre is af- filiated. Evans & Sister are marvel- ous foot jugglers and have an offering that is a welcome acquisition to any first class vaudeville bill both for the merit of the work indulged in and the scenic environment with which they have embellished it.

And there are probably many in these parts who after digging to the depths of their pockets, will give thanks that Thanksgiving comes but once a year.

The drug stores will be open until 10 o'clock tonight, which is merely a hint to be sure the peppermint bottle is not empty.

The boys will be here tomorrow, too, for their first appearance—mean- ing Tom and his brother Jerry.

They've discovered some mighty dignified ways of springing their stuff in Europe. For instance, a German gen- eral denies that he retreated in the face of a stiff assault. He reports that when the fire got too hot he "with- drew."

Order in the Court.

In a neighboring county recently a lawyer, during the trial of a case, made use of the expression, "Cast not your pearls before swine." Later, as he arose to make his argument, the judge, who was (before this time) a personal friend of the attorney, jok- ingly remarked: "Be careful, Mr. Blank, not to cast your pearls before swine."

"Don't be alarmed, your honor," replied the attorney. "I am about to address the jury, not the court."

A Thanksgiving Story.

An old negro arose at prayer meet- ing one night and delivered himself thus: "Bredder in an' sister in, Ise been a mighty mean nigger in my time. FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! GET A 25 CENT BOTTLE OF DANDERINE RIGHT NOW.

A REAL THANKSGIVING.

Leslie's Weekly, in an editorial, gives us an angle of Thanksgiving that deserves thought, and its advice deserves to be followed. It is:

Thank God for everything within you that bids you remember Him. In this day of vanity, distrust and despair belief in God is a real blessing.

Pause for one day in the eager rush for wealth and pleasure. On this Thanksgiving day remember the Giver of all good. Wait not for the approach of the midnight darkness of your life before you turn to Him. Praise Him with a grateful heart for manifold mercies you have received while millions suffer privations and millions mourn their dead.

In our distinctively American Thanksgiving day, a stronger note of gratitude should appear this year than ever before. Half the world's population is involved in war; we are blessed with peace. Harvests in many lands have been devastated; to our lot have fallen tremendous crops. In other lands there are few homes which have not sent father, son, or brother to the battle front, many never to return.

In our own favored land happy firesides remain undisturbed and unbroken. Enjoying the blessings of bountiful harvest and uninterrupted peace why should not all the people of America assemble in their places of worship and devoutly thank the Almighty God?

The war has turned the people of Europe to the churches in a marked degree. In time of great danger the mind of man instinctively looks to God for guidance and help. Should those who have been favored with mercies unnumbered be slower in giving God thanksgiving than those in distress are in petitioning for help?

With a lessened sense of duty toward the church, and with a growing disposition to make the Thanksgiving a week-end holiday time, more people absent themselves from church than ever before. Yet there has never been a time when people needed the help of the church more than in these intense days.

Why not observe Thanksgiving day this year by crowding the churches in a spirit of real reverence and devotion?

RUSSIA IS DRY.

When the Czar of All the Russias gets ready to turn the country dry he does not fool around with a lot of elections. He writes a line and signs his name and in the morning the nation is as dry as tinder. He is arbitrary perhaps but he gets action when he starts something. A fellow might as well try to buy a German flag in Russia as a drink tonight. And he might as well hoist that flag over his shop as to sell a drink.

Started your Christmas shopping yet?

THANKSGIVING.

I'm living in plenty, and Heaven I thank; I've eighteen or twenty round plunks in the bank; I've coal in the cellar, and 'taters heaped there; my wife, Isabella, has plenty to wear. No mortgages hateful are bothering me, and so I'm as grateful as mortal can be. But every such blessing is common, though grand; it's little distressing we know in this land; the kind angels guard us and see we have food, and soothe and reward us with all that is good. With calmness stupendous and nerve quite a few we take what they send us, as though it were due. Our roubles are clanking—we've lots of them near; we'll do all our thanking one day in the year. Of grub we've a grateful, stored safely away; we'll show we are grateful on Thanksgiving Day. Our meadow land raises a harvest sublime; we'll put up our praises some day when we've time. We folks who are living in fatness and ease should spend our Thanksgiving this year on our knees; whole nations are starving where war dogs are loose, while we are a-carving the turkey or goose. The paper—just skim it for news of the fray; if grateful, why limit our thanks to one day?

AN ARMY OF STUDENTS.

Puck, the humorous magazine, is promoting a propaganda for the formation of an American army in the universities and colleges. Instead of athletics for the few Puck would have an army for all in school. In a recent editorial Puck says:

"A larger and more important side is the tremendous beneficial advantage to our government in having at its disposal in time of need thousands of educated men with trained heads and hands, ready to cope intelligently and systematically with any situation. Would not such an army of students, drilling with banners flying, indulging in regular days of sport and athletics in which all could participate—target practice and maneuvering even, if you wish, be a more inspiring sight than the present football stadium?"

For many years United States army officers were assigned to military duty in large numbers of colleges and universities. When the Spanish-American war came on these officers were called to the colors. Since then some of them have been returned to such posts but not in such numbers as before.

Our own University of Illinois has a splendid military organization under the direction of an officer of the regular army.

Every male student at the university must join the regiment and remain in active service for two years unless physically disabled. Drill is held twice a week except in the spring term when it is held three times a week.

The regiment numbers about 2,000 men. The officers are chosen for their good work and must pass rigid examinations.

Military training received in this way has proved itself a blessing to thousands of American youths. It has taken many a bowed-over, knock-kneed boy, and straightened him into a fine-appearing, courageous man.

Some of the best officers in the Spanish-American war were college men who had received their military training while pursuing their studies.

General Funston has not yet turned over to the Mexicans the million dollars in duties he collected while he held Vera Cruz. Why not turn it into the U. S. treasury to help defray Uncle Sam's expenses in policing the Mexican coast? It would not be a drop in the bucket but it all helps in these days of the H. C. of L.

Do all damage you can to that turk Thanksgiving day because you may get rather tired of it before it is all gone. Destroy all you can while you have your strength and endurance.

Aurora is surely furnishing her share of scare heads for the newspapers of the state. If they can't convict somebody over there this time there is a fair chance of a lynching.

Four hundred and forty-five million is what the European war has cost the cotton growers of this country so far. Considerable of a contribution to Mars, eh?

Developments in the Turkish incident would seem to prove that in the event of war Uncle Sam could produce a pretty fair "bonehead" censor himself.

If the Germans trim the Czar he might come to the States and go on the chautauqua platform, talking in the interests of prohibition.

Several weeks have come and gone since the fatal election day, and not a peep from Oyster Bay. Don't the mail trains stop there?

An exchange says that it does not look as though there were any Mexicans who "would rather be right than President."

Now, Johnnie, do you prefer the dark meat or the light meat?

KEROSENE CAUSES MORE DEATHS THAN ANY OTHER AGENCY

STATE FIRE MARSHAL'S OFFICE ISSUES TIMELY WARNING.
THIS MONTH.

The State Fire Marshall's office in General Bulletin No. 14, which deals with "Starting Fires With Kerosene" gives some very timely warning, which should be read by all who have been tempted to use a little "coal oil" to hurry the fire up.
The bulletin is:

"In the first six months of the year 1914, more people were burned to death in the State of Illinois by starting fires with kerosene than from any other one cause.

"It is an exceedingly dangerous practice. So many fatal accidents were reported that in some counties the coroner of the county, who was called upon to investigate these fatalities, issued warning through the newspapers calling the attention of the people to the dangerous practice of starting fires with kerosene. In the county of Stevenson five deaths were reported in the period of one year.

"Kerosene should never be poured from a can into a stove under any circumstances. A stove may be warm or there may be a coal of fire left in it, and in either case a serious explosion is likely to follow.
Besides the liquid kerosene in the can there is always present a highly inflammable and explosive gas. If the stove is warm or a few coals are left in it, this gas may be ignited and a serious explosion occur in which the person starting the fire is likely to be burned to death.

Produces Great Heat.

"Kerosene starts a fire in a hurry.
It produces about six times as much heat as does wood in burning and it can be readily lighted with a match. Consequently, I presume it is unreasonable to expect its use in this connection to be entirely discontinued. The only reasonably safe course to follow if kerosene must be used in starting fires is to pour the kerosene on the kindling before placing it in the stove.

"Remember the less kerosene there is in the can the more room there is for the explosive gas and consequently the greater danger of an explosion.

"More than forty people were burned to death in this state last year by starting fires with kerosene.

"NEVER UNDER ANY CIRCUM-STANCES POUR KEROSENE OIL INTO A STOVE."

Out of the dark caverns of Tradition, Wisdom leads the warriors to a view of peace; the shrouded figure of Death, with his scythe, the war eagle on his shoulder turning away, the peaceful plowman, the mother and child.

Have you thought how fortunate you are that this nation has its face set towards Peace?

WE should be thankful for the fact that our country is prosperous; for bountiful crops; for our ability to help our fellowmen desolated by war; and because, here in our own community, the course of trade is going on with little check or difficulty.

The contrast between our conditions and that of those war-shattered towns and fields, should make us contented, cheerful over our own better lot. You may think this has little or nothing to do with the clothing business. But any consideration of the benefits of peace which we enjoy has something to do with every business. We should all go about our business, whatever it is, thankful of our good fortune. Our business is to sell

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes to the men and young men of this locality. We're attending to it diligently and cheerfully.

MURDERED MAN'S COMPANION SOUGHT

the brakeman saw Glendenning between two cars before the train started. Asked what he was doing there Glendenning said that he was getting down. The trainman advised him to get off the train before he fell and had his legs cut off. That was the last seen of him alive.

Came from Chicago.

Glendenning came in with two others on a train from Chicago and a switchman heard the third man of the trio remark that he would go no farther with them, that he did not like the looks of the Polack who was traveling with Glendenning. If this Pole could be found he might be able to tell something about what happened to Glendenning on that ride in a box car from Nelson to South Pekin. Mr. Draper said he inspected the cars before leaving Nelson, about 2:50 Thursday afternoon, and found only one door open and that a few inches. He tried to close it but was unable to do so. The car was about where he saw Glendenning, fifteen cars from the rear of a train of forty-five.

Stopped at Broadmoor.

He looked over the cars again at Broadmoor, but not after that, as he went back to flag when the train stopped at Limestone and Kickapoo.
At the latter place cars were cut off and taken to Peoria and it was undoubtedly here that the murderer got off. Conductor Draper is the only one who saw Glendenning that day, but his evidence did not go far in solving the mystery of the traveler's death.

The body will be held a while longer in the hope that relatives will claim it. An effort will be made to locate the man's family in Chicago.

RELIGION MUST BE WRITTEN ON INSIDE

EVANGELIST BARNHART DELIV-ERED EXCELLENT SERMON
TUESDAY EVENING.

The revival meetings in charge of Rev. Walter Barnhart at the Church of the Brethren continued to show increasing interest and a very appreciative audience greeted the evangelist last night.

The spirit and tone of the special prayer services and the sermon period was very inspiring. The speaker used for his theme the words of Paul in II. Cor. 3, concerning epistles of the work of grace written in hearts of men so as to be read and known of all.

This is a record and writing by God's Spirit he called soul literature.
It is the literature men and women of the world read oftener than they read their bibles and therefore Christians need to take care that they present a faithful record of the work of grace in their lives so that the world can read to the blessing of the unsaved.

The speaker's argument was that the most vital fact of religion is that it is and must first be written on the inside, in men's and women's hearts.
All externals without this will not avail and will not satisfy the possessor, his God nor his fellow man.

In his summing up of this lesson Rev. Barnhart gave the audience the following terse truths to consider:

The most tragic story is old age without religion, without God, the most barren picture is parenthood without Christianity, the most consummate failure is not a failure of a bank, of stocks or bonds or even of a government, but homes and families without God.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICES

The union Thanksgiving service of all the churches of the city will be held at the Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock this evening, the sermon to be delivered by Rev. C. E. Stebbins, pastor of the Congregational church.
Special music will be rendered by the choir of the church.

John Barge is expected here for a visit soon.

Thanksgiving

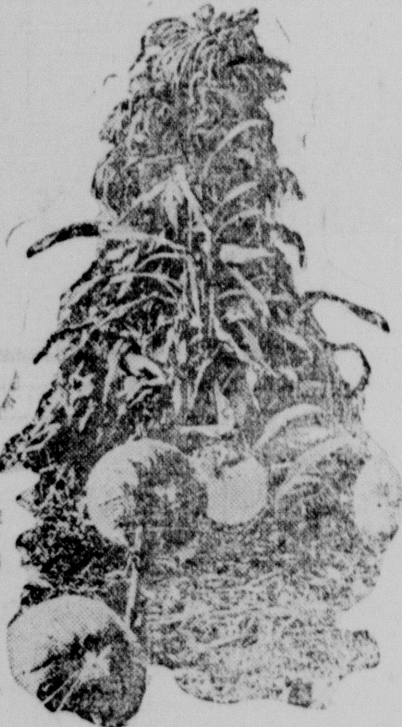

By GRACE M'KINSTRY

(Copyright, 1914, by American Press Association.)

THANKSGIVING'S here; I want to tell my joy to be alive and well. Through dangers great this year I went, though not a railroad accident, Not any war nor pestilence, but many things most took me hence.

I had a big mosquito bite, and on my head a fly did light; I've read of sickness through a fly—of course I thought I'd have to die! Some highly colored peas I ate and food with soda benzoate.

I drank unfiltered water, too; perhaps it had big germs all through! I did not sleep outdoors last May; I did not walk ten miles a day; I didn't have a diet fad, but here I am, and ain't I glad!

Washington's Proclamation. Washington as president of the United States issued his first proclamation for the observance of a day of thanksgiving at the city of New York on the 23 of October, 1789, setting apart Thursday, the 26th day of November of that year, "to be devoted by the people of these states to the service of that great and glorious Being who is the beneficent author of all the good that was, that is or that will be," etc.

This gives the Juniors a clear slate thus far in the series. The second year men outplayed the Seniors in every department of the game and were rightfully entitled to their victory. Vaughn was the star of the contest and made ten of his team's thirteen points.

SUSPECT IS TAKEN IN AURORA MURDER CASE

MAN OF SEVERAL ALIASES IS BEING HELD FOR IDENTIFICATION.

POLICE HUNT FOR FARM HAND

Seek for David McKain, Believed to Be "J. E. Shobles" in Mystery.

Aurora, Ill., Nov. 25.—The disappearance of David McKain, formerly a helper on the farm of John Snider, six miles from Plainfield, has furnished the police with their latest lead in connection with the mystery surrounding the murder of Miss Jennie Miller.

McKain left Plainfield two weeks ago. His name became associated with the Miller inquiry when investigators learned he answered the description of the mysterious "J. E. Shobles," who vanished from the rooming house of Mrs. Ben Edgar in the Burton Block on the evening of the murder.

McKain had been employed by Snider for a week and had been discharged.

Trained to Michigan.

Three days later a post card was received asking the farmer's wife to send his mail to him in care of his brother, Frank McKain, at 77 Aldrich street, Battle Creek, Mich. He was in Battle Creek the day after the murder but left for parts that are unknown.

Whether the finding of McKain will throw any light on the Miller mystery the police do not know, but they report that it will clear up a puzzling incident.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Capt. Edward A. Light of the Forest Park police turned over Arthur Nelson, alias Thomas Carroll, alias Kelly, to Chief of Police Nichols of the Aurora police in connection with the quest for the murderer of Jennie Miller.

Nelson was questioned for more than an hour by Captain Light and steadfastly refused to tell where he was last Wednesday night, the date of the murder of Miss Miller. The prisoner admitted that he had been in Aurora for ten days and said he slept in the station at Elmhurst, Ill., last Thursday night. No amount of questioning could revive his memory as to where he spent the night previous.

He said that in Aurora he stopped at the Christian home, near the river. He denied all connection with the murder of the woman and declared he had been engaged in no trade which would bring him into possession of a pipe wrench, such as the weapon used to kill Miss Miller.

FRESHMEN WILL MEET.

A basketball game between the freshmen teams of the North and South Side high schools has been arranged and will be played at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium on Friday evening. There is considerable rivalry between the two teams and a fast game is expected.

RETURNS TO MICHIGAN.

Harry Zoeller of Cold Water, Mich., a former Dixon boy, who has been here visiting his father, F. A. Zoeller, who has been very ill, leaves tomorrow for his home, as his father is much improved. Mr. Zoeller is doing very well in a business way in Michigan. He is much pleased with the great improvements he noticed in this, his old home and greatly enjoyed meeting his many friends here.

TELLS OF HIS ONLY PROMISE

Defeated Illinois Congressional Candidate Would Get Cannon for Town.

Washington, Nov. 25.—An undying pledge to obtain an old cannon to decorate the court house square at Petersburg, Ill., was the only campaign promise made by J. F. Dubois, an unsuccessful opponent of Representative Henry T. Rainey of Illinois. The promise is recorded in Dubois' report of campaign contributions and expenses, filed at the capitol.

"I promised," read Dubois' affidavit, "to get two cannon for our court house square, if elected, even if I had to steal them from the United States navy. Promise to hold good 1916, 1918, 1920, 1922, 1924 or until Henry T. Rainey gets the cannon or I defeat him."

FLYERS VIOLATE NEUTRALITY

Swiss Government Reported to Protest British Airmen's Acts.

Berlin, Nov. 25.—(By wireless to London.)—It is reported here from Bern, Switzerland, that a number of French or English aircraft flew from France over Swiss territory to Friedrichshafen, on Lake Constance, thus deliberately committing a breach of Swiss neutrality.

The Swiss ministers in both London and Bordeaux have protested vigorously to the British and French governments against this breach of neutrality.

OVERSTREET OPENS NEW JEWELRY STORE

and Mr. Rubenstein will occupy the east half of the room with a fine new store for ladies' furnishings. Both gentlemen are buying new stock and fixtures and will soon be open for business.

Mr. Overstreet announced today that he had ordered a complete new equipment of fixtures, the finest procurable. His cases, etc., will all be of mahogany and glass and as soon as the fixtures and safes arrive, he will be able to put his stock on sale. Mr. Overstreet expects to open for business about the 5th or 6th of December. Dixon people remember that he conducted a jewelry store in the Odd Fellows' building on Galena avenue for about three years, up to two years ago, when he moved away.

BURDENS LIFTED

FROM DIXON BACKS—RELIEF IS PROVED BY LAPSE OF TIME.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness, dizziness, headache, Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All wear one out. Often effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms. Relief is but temporary if the cause remains.

If it's the kidneys, cure the cause. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills.

Read about your neighbors case. Here's Dixon testimony.

The kind that can be investigated. J. C. Kirkham, 11- E. Fourth St., Dixon, says: "I had been suffering from pain across my back for a long time, but didn't think it was caused by weak kidneys. Finally, a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Leake Bros. drug store. It didn't take them long to remove the trouble. The cure has been permanent. All I said about Doan's Kidney Pills when I endorsed them before, holds good."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kirkham had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
